

How much will it cost?

There are two elements to the cost. The first is our project fee which is clearly stated at the top of the project pages. The second is the other costs you will incur, such as flights and visas. In the 'What's not included' sections on each project page we have made an estimate of these other costs so that you can put together an overall budget.