

Do I need any immunisations or malaria tablets?

It depends on the project, but for most locations you are likely to need some immunisations. Our information pack provides details and you will need to book a visit to your doctor, ideally 2-3 months before your departure.